In Donbass are fighting volunteers of all the nations of Western Europe and Eastern Europe, the Russian Federation, the Middle East. French against the French, Italians against Italians, Chechens against Chechens, Spaniards against Spaniards, Russians against Russians, Afghans against Afghans. The war in Ukraine is like a Russian doll.

In his belly welcomes tens of fratricidal wars that testify to the disintegration of a civilization, that of Europe, who chose suicide, hostage of a political class of financial terrorists who have overwhelmed the identity of the continent itself. Ideologies that bring about men and women to kill each other on the Ukrainian soil, belong to a distant era, destroyed by the advent of neoliberalism that has no boundaries. It's a confrontation between two different fascisms, but identical in substance, led by oligarchs of global finance.

This does not mean that these ideas are not entirely real in the minds of the fighters, fed and supported by a massive propaganda. Here the portraits, the stories and the ideas of 12 men, and women, who have voluntarily enlisted to fight in the Donbass.
